

Bitwanis Beek

Choreography Workshop and Show with

Phaedra

Sunday Jan 17, 2010, 2:00-5:00, show at 5:30 (snow date Jan 24)

Bitwanis Beeks is a classical Arabic-style piece made famous by the singer Warda. Bitwanis Beek is a passionate song of love. It means, “You are always with me.” The singer sings of how much she cherishes her love both when he is with her and when he is away from her, how his presence comforts her and his love protects her from far away. In this workshop, Phaedra, will present choreography to an instrumental version of the song.

Phaedra, a much-loved dancer and teacher, has been performing for over three decades. She is master of both Arabic and Turkish styles and is known for her precise hip work, lyrical veil work, and passion for the music. She is a patient and organized teacher who enjoys helping her students to master this art form.

She was a founding member of the Near East Dance Theatre, has produced two instructional DVDs, and written a book about performance skills for belly dancers. See www.ephadra.com for a complete biography.

Workshop: 2:00-5:00, Show: 5:30. The show is open to all workshop participants. Both Phaedra and Louise will be performing.

Sponsored by: Louise Dorian

Where: Louise’s home studio 86 Old Mill Road, Harvard, MA 01451

Price: $50.00 for the workshop (includes show), $5.00 show only

Register: Send check to Louise Dorian, 86 Old Mill Road, Harvard, MA 01451

For more information or to sign up to dance: Contact Louise at louisedorian@yahoo.com or 978.772.2494